SCARBOROUGH CASTLE

LL6242

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Scarborough Castle. In its palmy days, Scarborough Castle was a fortress of great extent and strength. It was built about 1136, and from that date to 1745 took part in many of the stirring events in English History. During the Civil War it was held for the King, and amongst those who have been confined in the walls was George Fox, the founder of the Society of Friends (1666). From 1745 it has been allowed to crumble into ruins, but some modern buildings are still occupied as Military Barracks.
